

TompkinsRx -- Experience in Tompkins County January - March 2005

Average savings per prescription January - March: $14.90 = 24.2%.

Month	# Times Card Used	Total Rx - Retail	Total Rx - Mail	Total Rxs	Plan Priced Rxs	% Plan Priced Rxs	Retail Priced Rxs	% Retail Priced Rxs	Total Drug Cost	Avg. Drug Cost	Retail Submitted Price	Avg. Retail Submitted Price	Total Price Savings	Avg. Price Savings
January 2005	N/A			296	270	91.2%	26	8.8%	$17,023	$57.51	$22,479	$75.94	$5,456	$18.43
February 2005	395	788		788	737	93.5%	51	6.5%	$35,610	$45.19	$47,063	$59.72	$11,454	$14.53
March 2005	514	1,086	2	1,088	1,010	92.8%	78	7.2%	$48,638	$44.70	$64,085	$58.90	$15,447	$14.20

TompkinsRx cards are available at all Tompkins County pharmacies, as well as at county and municipal offices, local libraries, and doctors' offices. Consumers can also call Information and Referral at 272-9331 for a card or other information. For more information visit the Tompkins County website at <http://www.co.tompkins.ny.us/topicdetail.php?TopicID=7CaremarkRx>, or call CaremarkRx at 1-877-321-2652.

Tompkins County thanks the Health Planning Council for its assistance in distributing the TompkinsRx cards, and local pharmacists for their acceptance of the program and eagerness to help consumers use it.

TompkinsRx -- Experience in Tompkins County January - March 2005

Tompkins County thanks the Health Planning Council for its assistance in distributing the TompkinsRx cards, and local pharmacists for their acceptance of the program and eagerness to help consumers use it.